THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BORADCASTING (SHRI PRIYARANJAN DASMUNSI) (a) and (b): No, sir. However, the film 'Rang De Basanti' was reffered to the Ministry of Defence after the film was examined by the Examining Committee as it was felt that it contained scenes concerning the Ministry of Defence, particularly the Air Force, (c) In accordance with Rule 41 (c) of the Cinematograph (Certification) Rules, 1983, the film can be reffered to an expert body by the Chairperson of Central Board of Film Certification, if the members of the Examining Committee feel that it is so required in view of the film depicting subjects relating to defence or foreign relations, etc.

(d) In the past, the films 'border[1] (Hindi) and 'Line of Control' (Hindi) were given clearance by Ministry of Defence on the request of the applicant prior to the film being examined by Central Board of Film Certification (CBFC). In the case of the film Tango Charli', the Examining Committee of CBFC asked the producer to get an NOC from the Ministry of Defence.

The Press in India is free from Government control and is in private hands. In pursuance of its policy to uphold the freedom of the Press, the Government does not interfere in the its functioning. The Press Council of India (PCI) is a statutory autonomous body set up under the Press Council Act, 1978 with the twim object of preserving the freedom of the Press and of maintaining and improving the standards of newspapers and news agencies in India and to inculcate principles of self-regulation among the press. The Government follows a policy of non-interference in the functioning of the Council and it enjoys complete autonomy in its functioning. The Council, which is in the nature of a self-regulatory body of the Press, has built "Norms of Journalistic Conduct", which cover principles and ethics with regard to journalism as also guidelines on reporting the specific issues of public and national importance. The provisions 6,7 & 8 of the "Norms of Journalistic Conduct" stipulate for "Right to Privacy", "Privacy of Public figures" and "Recording interviews and phone conversation". The advisories issued by the Press Council of India, however, carry only moral force and are not enforceable in a Court of Law.

(c) Does not arise.
